

NM ROADRUNNERS JOAD/ ARCHERY PARENT/GUARDIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The essential elements of character-building and ethics in sports are embodied in the concept of sportsmanship and six core principles: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and good citizenship. The highest potential of sports is achieved when competition reflects these "six pillars of character."

As the parent or guardian of a NM Roadrunners Joad (NMRR Joad) shooter, I recognize that my child's individual success is linked to NMRR Joad's program and success.

I therefore agree:

1. I will refrain from coaching my child and/or other players during events and practices, unless I am one of the official coaches for NMRR Joad. * Official coaches are on the roster list and official working with the program.
2. I will inform the coach of any physical disability or ailment that may affect the safety of my child or the safety of others.
3. I will learn the rules of the game and the policies of NMR Joad/USA Archery.
4. I (and my guests) will be a positive role model for my child and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by demonstrating positive support for all participants, coaches, volunteers, officials and spectators at every practice and/or event.
5. I (and my guests) will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any official, coach, participant, volunteer, or parent such as booing and taunting, refusing to shake hands, or using profane language or gestures.
6. I will demand that my child treat other participants, coaches, officials, volunteers, and spectators with respect regardless of race, creed, color, sex or ability.
7. I will emphasize skill development and practices and how they benefit my child over winning. I will also deemphasize competition in the lower age groups.

Because I understand that the rules and principles set forth above are so critical to my child's well-being and the success of the NMRR Joad, I further agree that I, my child, and/or my guests may be asked to leave, permanently or temporarily, a NMRR Joad archery related practice or event if a representative of the NMRR Joad determines that my/our presence is detrimental in any way.
